Cairo Cabaret: An Evening of Egyptian Dance

Black Cat Belly Dance

Saturday 6pm, The State Theatre $17.50

Let Black Cat Belly Dance transport you to the cabaret stages of Egypt for this one-night-only, one-of-a-kind performance! Cairo Cabaret will feature Egyptian Raqs Sharqi (belly dance) and a bit of Egyptian folklore - in an intimate setting just like you would see in the best clubs in Cairo. Join us in The Attic of The State Theatre for an exciting night of Egyptian music and dance!

Centre Dance Showcase

Centre Dance

Friday 1pm, The State Theatre $12.50, Free with Class Pass

Centre Dance will showcase selections from their 28th annual spring recital of dancers of all ages, including some of their award winning dances (AVID Dance Productions). Led by its founder, Nicole Swope, their dancers have competed throughout the US over the past year, being honored as “Well Rounded Studio” and “Studio of Sportsmanship” from prestigious organizations.

Eclipse of Energy

Dmitry Myers

Sunday 3pm, 333 S. Patterson Street $17.50, $14.50 Student

As the Second Annual Theatre and Dance Fest comes to a close the reality of the performances transfers into memory. What do you feel after you see a show that moves you? What happens to the energy? Where does it go? Do you keep it for yourself or send it out into the Universe so others can experience the existence? Come take in the last of the Fest in a green suburban setting as Dmitry Myers performs acrobatics, dance, inspired choreography in a highflying movement of cirque.

Refracting Shadows
